DAVIS THEATRE

Episode No. 19 of the Million Dollar Mystery Today and Tomorrow

A addition to the excellent program of vaudeville and photoplays that is attracting the crowds to the Davis first half of this week, for today and tomorrow the 19th episode of the Million Dollar Mystery will be shown. This two-reel installment is called The Underground River and promises to be one of the most exciting and thrilling episodes ever seen here. In a few weeks this serial will be finished. To the one who sends in the best solution of the mystery $10,000 in cash will be paid by the Thousand Dollar Company. Everyone has a chance to win this big prize. See the remaining episodes and send your solution; it's worth trying for. The last two reels of the story will be taken from the solution accepted as the best and will be shown here some time in January. The vaudeville program today is up to the high standard of this theatre, with Hobart and Allen heading the bill in a lively comedy sketch, The Cabbie and His Fare. Musical Seely does a neat musical specialty, playing several instruments, including banjo, chimes and bells. The lighting effects are used. Collins and Manning are the third act, and they do a comedy singing and dancing specialty that makes them favorites every time they appear. The photoplays include the Mutual War Weekly with scenes from the war of war and a funny Keystone comedy with Fatty, the champion heavyweight comedian, giving everyone a good time. Matinee today at 2:30, 5 and 7 o'clocks.

COLONIAL THEATRE

As We Forgive Those, Magnificent Two-Reel Lubin Feature.

This superlative feature for today is one of the best of the Lubin productions and features Miss Justina Huff, the popular ingenue of the cast. The story tells of Mary, the daughter of a poor farmer, who is not contented with the quiet life which her husband as foreman of the shop creates for her, and she elopes with the man who offers her a life of luxury. The story is a love story, and the elopement is the result of a misunderstanding. The film is a masterpiece of the art, and the acting is superb. NORWICH TOWN

Christmas Sale and Entertainment at the Social Club Saturday evening. Trinity Methodist Pastor and Girls' Choir at Shattering Arms—Music at Backus Hospital.

A Christmas sale and entertainment was given in the hall by the Scotland Road Social Club Saturday evening. Over $30 was realized. There was a good attendance. Mrs. William Manning of Yantic was especially appreciated for her generous donation of a large turkey. Mrs. Manning, Mrs. Baker and Miss Weller of Taftville giving most delightful music. The programme of the entertainment follows: In the morning, Mrs. Manning, solo, "Bowl of Roses, Miss Baker; Legend of the Organ Builder, Mrs. Manning; duet, O That We Two Were Maying, Miss Baker and Miss Weller; Our Wedding Day, Mrs. Manning; solo, Shed No Tears, Miss Weller; Papa and the Boys, Mrs. Manning; solo, Shadows, Miss Weller.

The table decorations were carried out in lavender and white. There was a large sale of fancy work and aprons in charge of Miss B. M. Grant and Miss Emily Wilcox. The candy table, where Misses Susie Wilcox and Bessie Bushnell presided, was well patronized. A basket of fruit donated by Mrs. Chubb sold twice. The grab bag took the form of a rainbow colored wheel which was spun by Mrs. W. H. Here were Mrs. Walter Grant and Mrs. John Thompson.

Could Describe Volges Mountains Conditions.

Last Sunday's lesson in the Bible class of the First Congregational Sunday school, Rev. J. O. Barrowe teacher, in charge of the class, was an applied Christianity. By a singular coincidence, the illustration given in the text book was of a poor parish in the Volges mountains, where now battles are raging. Mr. Barrowe having lived in that region, could picture the people and their surroundings.

Sheltering Arms Service.

The service Sunday afternoon at the Sheltering Arms was conducted by Rev. F. W. Coleman, pastor of Trinity Methodist church. He made comments on the 104th Psalm. This Psalm, said, is appropriate for this time of year. There are times when we are thankful for special blessings we are given. The Psalmist goes on to think of some of the blessings, physical, temporal, spiritual, and eternal. Our lives are surrounded with loving kindness and tender mercies. We could not stand before God if we had our just deserts. The Psalmist here is no change. His infinite mercy is always the same.

FRENCH MUTINY MAKES PUBLIC A YELLOW BOOK.

Bearing on the Causes of the Present European War.

Paris, Nov. 30.—The French ministry of foreign affairs today made public a Yellow Book bearing on the causes of the present war. This French volume is much more complete than the publications of this nature given out up to the present time by other governments.

The report has 216 pages and comprises 160 documents. It is devoted primarily to a recital of the negotiations which followed the delivery of the Austrian note to Serbia (July 23, 1914) and which preceded the declaration of war by Germany on Russia (August 1, 1914) and on France (August 3, 1914). It is brought to a close by the reproduction of the declaration of the Triple Entente powers that Great Britain, Russia and France would not conclude peace separately. An extract of the Yellow Book, given out officially in Paris, reads as follows:

Germany's Coercive Militia Effort.

"It was first in the spring of 1913 that it was noted that Germany was expending military effort, which alone can explain the desire to impose Germanic superiority and hegemony upon the powers of the triple entente. With France responded to this menace by the drafting of the law of three years service in the army, this measure of defence was denounced in official circles in Berlin as a provocation which should not be tolerated.

"In April of 1913 a secret and official report defined the objective and the

To Have Pretty Hair

If your hair is not as soft, and pretty, or as fresh and full as that of some friend, do as she does—give it daily attention, just the same care you would give a plant to make it healthy and beautiful. Luxuriant hair is soft, fluffy, thick and lustrous—really a matter of care. If it is too thin, make it grow. If it is too dry and brittle, soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp and the dandruff disappears.

Parian Sage, an inexpensive tonic, which you can get from any drug or toilet counter, or from Lee & Osgood, is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes the hair roots, immediately removes dandruff, and makes the hair fluffy, lustrous and abundant. One application will stop itching head and cleanse the scalp. Use it daily and the hair grows and the dandruff disappears.

By the use of this helpful tonic any woman can easily make her hair soft, fluffy and abundant. Pretty hair will surely increase her charm and beauty.

means of the national policy" as follows:

"Convince the people of the necessity of an offensive war against France; prepare uprisings in Russia and in North America; in case of hostilities, the immediate absorption of Belgium and Holland."

These are the ideas extolled in this report, such is the programme that, shortly after, we saw the Germans endeavor to put into operation.

"We declare that Emperor William, who up to this time had posed as a champion of peace, admitted in the course of a conversation with the king of Belgium that he had finally come to share the ideas of his military advisers. He had placed himself among the partisans of a war which he thought would not be long delayed and the overruling success of which seemed to him certain, permitted itself to be won over by the passions of the military party and came to consider the affair of Alsace as a defeat for Germany."

It regarded the existence of a strong France as a danger to Germany and the breaking out of a European war as the only remedy for all difficulties and all uncertainties.

"These bellicose dispositions constituted a permanent danger for the peace of Europe."

"From a perusal of the six other chapters of the book, which are devoted to the diplomatic relations carried on in the month of July, there is to be deduced and supported by evidence, the following impressions: that the combination between Austria and Germany had decided upon war and that on four successive occasions the combination endeavored to precipitate war by violent proceedings, the purpose of which was to prevent, or to insure the failure of all Austrian ultimatum to Serbia (July 24) which was the origin of this conflict."

Rockville.—Secretary John E. Fisk of the school board of the town of Vernon, has compiled a table showing the number of children of school age in the town. The number is 1,820, compared with 1,790 a year ago.

POETRY

"THE LADIES' AID"

We've put a new addition on the good old church at home. It's just the latest-kilter, with a gallery and a new organ. And when two thousand people—men, women and children in all the town, and when two thousand—every church in the town—stood the hardest test. And the Ladies' Aid Society, it promised all the rest.

We've got an organ in the church—very finest in the land. It's got a thousand pipes or more, its melody is grand. And when the air with glory shook, and hear the master play, it carries us to realms of bliss unknown. It stood the hardest test. We'll pay a thousand on it—the Ladies' Aid the rest.

They'll give a hundred soles, centimes, too, and toast. They'll make a thousand angel cakes, and tons of cream they'll freeze. They'll beg and scrape and toil and when they start all over again, No; it isn't just digging out the money from your vest. When the Ladies' Aid Society says, "We'll pay the rest."

Of course, we're proud of our big church, from pulpit up to spire; It is the darling of our eyes, the crown of our ambition. But when I see the sisters work to raise the cash that will help women's tired backs. And when the sacred wisdom teach, when we reach the regions blest, That men will get the toll and sweat, and the Ladies' Aid the rest. —Christian Observer.

THE SILENT SKIES ARE FULL OF SPEECH

The silent skies are full of speech. For when the wind is in the trees, The winds are whispering each to each. The moon is calling to the beach, And the stars are calling to the sea. Or Faith and Love and Fear.

But once the sky its silence broke, And song o'erflowed the earth, The angels' music was heard, The angels' mortal language spoke, When God our human nature took In Christ the Saviour's birth.

And Christmas once is Christmas still, The gates through which He came, And forests wild and murmuring rills, And all that else the wide world fill Are vocal with His name.

Shall we not listen while they sing. This latest Christmas morn. And praise Him in every strain. And faithful lives in tribute bring. To the great song which greets the King. Who comes when Christ is born. —H. F. G.
